

Instructional Standards for UARK OLLI Courses

Describing high quality OLLI courses:

Informative	The content is accurate, verifiable and up-to-date
Engaging	The content is relevant, intellectually stimulating, and thought-provoking
Well-Organized	The presentation is easy to follow, with material in logical order and smooth transitions between sub-topics or major points The content delivery is well paced (neither rushed nor too slow) There is an appropriate amount of content for the time allotted.
Interactive	The class session is structured to encourage participation among attendees.
Accessible	The session reflects attention to the needs and comfort of participants.
Respectful	The course is delivered as advertised, and aligned with adult learning principles. The course is designed to appeal to mature learners who are intrinsically motivated and self-directed, and who have a wealth of life experience.